Rebecca K. Wagner

Rebecca Wagner is a Colorado native and was born in Englewood, Colorado. As an undergraduate, she attended the University of Colorado at Boulder where she graduated with honors with a B.A. in Psychology. After graduating college, Rebecca applied for and was granted an internship with the Jefferson County District Attorney's Office where she worked in the investigative unit. Thereafter, she worked for three judges in Douglas County as both a division clerk and later as a law clerk.

She continued with her education at the University of Colorado where she obtained her J.D. in 2000. While attending school at the University of Colorado, Rebecca began working for a local insurance defense firm. Since that time, she has had experience as an appellate associate assigned to bad faith litigation and class action lawsuits. Later, she continued working on bad faith litigation as well as focusing her practice on cases involving complex medical issues and causation. Rebecca joined Campbell, Wagner and Frazier, LLC in 2012 as a partner.
